

Modular flexibility

Following a global trend, office landscapes of today demand optimum space utilisation, with a number of flexible work space configurations.

Today's offices must accommodate the needs of individuals, specialised teams and larger divisional groupings. It is imperative that the work areas are designed specifically. This achieves an environment with creative space allocation for work stations, including wrap-around designs, discussion areas, meeting rooms and recreational facilities. The Icon desking system embraces the multiplicity of the workplace and makes up a cohesive, user-friendly environment. The stylish Icon office solution meets all these requirements with your budget parameters in mind. Work areas can grow with the business and be reconfigured and repositioned as and when necessary.
